

LONGHORN CLASSIC OLR 2024 "FOR SALE" BIRD RULES

In a nutshell, the Buyer pays all race fees, then splits all winnings 50/50 with the Breeder.

"Breeder" is the person who breeds a "For Sale" bird.
"Buyer" is the person who pays the race fees for a "For Sale" bird.

RULES

1. Buyer of a "For Sale" bird pays $130 perch fee (no 6th perch free) & the race entry fee.
2. Buyer becomes the bird's owner and retains rights to bird after the season ends.
3. All prize money generated by a "For Sale" bird is split 50/50 between Buyer & Breeder.
4. "For Sale" birds are only eligible if bred by a Longhorn Classic 2022 or 2023 Grand Finale first drop winning breeder.
5. Breeders are only eligible if they participated in the Longhorn Classic OLR in both 2022 and 2023 seasons.
6. Breeder pays for shipping postage and boxes to send birds to the Longhorn Classic.
7. "For Sale" birds are available to Buyers on a first come - first serve basis, so must be claimed by text or email to have a time-stamp. No preferential treatment is given to anyone.
8. "For Sale" birds are not available as replacement birds. The $130 fee is due for all "For Sale" birds and are not available for free replacements.
9. "For Sale" birds are only available until our cutoff date for accepting new birds & replacement birds (tentatively June 16, 2024)
10. After our cutoff date for accepting new birds & replacement birds (tentatively June 16, 2024), any remaining "For Sale" birds become the property of the Breeder. Perch fees can be paid to keep birds in the race or birds can be returned at Breeder's shipping expense.
11. Buyer pays return shipping fees at the end of the season.
12. Any dispute will be settle by Mike & Nora Belus of the Longhorn Classic.
